Dear Sirs:

Can we secure from you a few glossy prints from which we could make copies for circulation in our schools to be used in the study of Colonial Life? If you have a list of available material, we shall be glad to make a selection or would appreciate your suggesting a few subjects.

Very truly yours,

Helen M. G. Stearns

Dear Madam:

Unfortunately we have no available material that would aid you in the study of Colonial life. We do not have photographs of American Colonial coins but could have these made for you at a charge of five dollars a negative which would probably include about twenty coins on a plate.

Very truly yours,

Curator.
